DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

The species are as follows:

Embodiment of Fig. 1, a species of a fuel cell stack with a collector plate with regions less thick in other regions than in the neighboring region, corresponding to claim 3.

Embodiment of Fig. 2 and 3, a second species of a fuel cell stack with a collector plate with a plurality of holes, corresponding to claims 4-6.

Embodiment of Fig. 5, a third species of a fuel cell stack with a collector plate with differing depth and width of the gas passages, corresponding to claim 7.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

The following claim(s) are generic: Claims 1 and 2.

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: The species lack the same special technical feature. Embodiment I uses collector plate thickness, Embodiment II uses a plurality of holes, and Embodiment III uses different depth and width of gas passages in order to impart the collector plate with a differing volume per unit area.

A telephone call was made to Smith Sirisakorn on 4/22/09 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i). The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:
